To Advertisers.—The Vermont Daily Transcript has the largest circulation in St. Albans and in Franklin County, of any daily paper, and is on that account, if no other, the best medium for advertising.

Local Items.

Interesting matter, original or selected, may always be found on the first page.

OUR DAILY.—Those wishing to secure copies of our daily paper can do so at Merrillfield's and Baker's bookstores, as well as of carriers, and at the office. Copies of our weekly paper may also be had at these places.

REMEMBER the Republican Caucus this evening at Academy Hall, at 7 o'clock, to nominate six delegates and six alternates to the Stowe Convention on Wednesday next.

LADIES' FESTIVAL.—The ladies of St. Luke's Church, as will be seen by an advertisement in another column, will hold their Summer Festival at Academy Hall, on Thursday evening.

VERMONT CENTRAL RAILROAD.—Two hundred and seventeen loaded freight cars left St. Albans and Essex Junction on Saturday, going South over the Vermont Central Railroad, instead of 170, as we had it.

SOCIAL DANCE.—There is to be a social dance at Music Hall, St. Albans, Friday evening, August 21. Managers: W. B. Inglis, H. W. Ball, Messrs. Holmberg and Kinsley's Quadrille Band.

THE funeral of Gen. McDANIELS was attended from his late residence in Rutland on Sunday morning at 10 o'clock.

SUICIDE.—James Clifford, a blacksmith in the employ of the Eagle State Company at Hydeville, threw himself from the rocks above into the quarry, and was instantly killed.

ANOTHER GRANT CLUB.—A Grant and Colfax club has been organized in St. Johnsbury. A Grant Club was organized in St. Albans several weeks ago and is now in splendid working order. It is in contemplation, we understand, to organize a Colfax Club at an early day.

INDICTED FOR LIBEL.—Rev. Charles Eagan, Catholic Priest in Augusta, Me., has been indicted before the Grand Jury for libel.

NEW CHURCHES IN VERGENNES.—The Vermonters says it is rumored that estimates are being made for the building of a Baptist Church in Vergennes, at a cost of from $5000 to $8000.

It is also contemplated to erect a new Catholic Church. Contributions are already being made for that purpose.

PLATTSBURGH AND ST. ALBANS.—Messrs. Wm. and E. D. Fuller have commenced running a covered stage daily (Sundays excepted) from St. Albans to St. Albans Bay, connecting with the steamer for Plattsburgh. The stage will leave the different hotels at 6 o'clock a. m., and return after arrival of boat from Plattsburgh.

RICHFORD.—The following gentlemen are delegates from this town to the Stowe Convention: Wm. C. Brown, Capt. L. Smith and Dr. J. H. Hamilton.

A VERMONT NURSERY.—The Newport Express says: "We took a hasty walk over Bryant's grounds at Derby last week, and freely admit our surprise at the extent of his business. He has about 800,000 trees in different stages of their growth, all thrifty, having borne a winter which Mr. Bryant says was the hardest for all kinds of fruit trees known during the past fifteen years. He says after about eighteen months he shall be able to furnish customers from 40,000 to 50,000 trees a year. We should think he had enough started to supply a small corner of the universe."

ROGUES ARRESTED.—Constable Thos. Fahey and Deputy Sheriff James P. Place assisted by John A. Fitch and B. F. Kelly of the Customs Service, succeeded in arresting William Jones and Henry Hakey at Highgate at 1 o'clock this morning. Jones will be remembered as the man who was in jail here for stealing from Wm. N. Smith, and made his escape with the other inmates last April. At the time of their arrest they were on a marauding expedition from Canada and had a tub of stolen butter in their wagon. These men are believed to have been engaged in plundering the house of Mr. Webster, in Fairfield, about two weeks ago, and have frequently made thieving excursions from Canada since that time, with considerable success. A number of dwelling houses in St. Albans and Highgate, it is believed, had been marked by them for future operations. The villains were armed when arrested, and had in their possession a large quantity of skeleton keys. They are now in jail at St. Albans.

MR. WILLARD'S RECEPTION.—On his return from the Rutland Convention Friday night, Hon. Charles W. Willard was met at Montpelier Junction by a delegation of the officers of the Grant and Colfax Club of Montpelier, and by them escorted to his home through streets crowded with people and brilliantly illuminated with rockets and blazing tar barrels. He was soon after surrounded by the Montpelier Brass Band, when he made some appropriate remarks, returning his thanks for the honor conferred upon him and promising a more lengthy address at some other time. The people were then invited into his house where a general hearty hands shaking took place.

HONORARY DEGREES.—The following honorary degrees were conferred at the recent commencement of the University of Vermont:

The Degree of Master of Arts in course on Franklin Denison, of the class of 1864, and Albert Warren Clark, and John Hopkins Worcester, Jr., of the class of 1865. The honorary degree of Master of Arts was conferred on George Franklin Bailey, of Chicago, Luther Loomis Dutcher, of St. Albans, Hon. Orange Ferris, M. C. of Idaho's Falls, Calvin Lewis Robinson, of Jacksonville, Florida; Dennis Townsend, California, and Brevet-Brig-Gen. William W. Wheeler, of Chicago, Ill., and of M. D. on David H. Goodville, D. D. S., New Jersey. The honorary degree of Doctor of Divinity was conferred on Rev. Edwin Adolphus Bulkley, of Plattsburgh, N. Y., and Rev. Alonzo Berry Rich, of Beverly, Mass., of the Class of 1842.—The honorary degree of Doctor of Laws was conferred on Prof. Farand Northrup Benedict, of Parsippany, New Jersey.

SHORT HORN CATTLE.—Mr. L. J. Wright of Weybridge has recently made an addition to his herd of short horns, by purchasing the entire herd of the original importer, Mr. James Fullington of Eryin, Union county, Ohio, consisting of one yearling bull, whose weight is 1,300 pounds, and fifteen cows and heifers, among which is a cow that weighs 1,570 pounds, and two one-year old heifers that weigh over 1,300 pounds each.

The bull cost the sum of one thousand dollars. Mr. Wright is the owner of over forty head of short horns—the best herd in the State, as he will prove, as he intends to exhibit them at the coming State Fair at Burlington.

New and Miscellaneous Items.

Grant acts, Seymour talks, and Blair blows.

Chicago thinks it can give odds and beat the "wickedest man in New York."

At Peterboro, writes Mrs. Cady Stanton, there is a base ball club of girls.

Frank Blair says: "Revolutions cannot go backward." But the Blairs can.

Snuffing is coming into fashion in Paris among the ladies.

The Chicagoans encourage races between milk wagons, and call them aquatic sports.

Montana farmers are trying to domesticate the buffalo.

A farmer in Putnam county, Ill., committed suicide because the grasshoppers had injured his wheat.

A. J. Streeter recently drove a pair of horses from St. Paul, Min., to Hartford, Conn., in seven weeks. The distance is about fifteen hundred miles.

Murat Halstead, editor and principal proprietor of the Cincinnati Commercial, was, fifteen years ago, a country school-teacher in the village of Mount Pleasant, a suburb of that city.

It is said that we are to have another humorous weekly next Autumn, to be called the Grapeshot, and that $75,000 and a corps of clever writers have already been secured for it.

In digging a foundation in San Francisco, a heavy barrel was exhumed, and great was the excitement when it became rumored that a barrel of gold dust had been hidden there some twenty years ago. When opened, it proved to be full of very putrid flour.

Good Jersey cows are selling in New York at from $200 to $300 a head; very extra, with perfect pedigrees, for about double this price.

A. J. Donelson is out for Seymour. We understand that Donelson claims that he once ran for Vice-President with a man named Fillmore.

One of the factors of the Hudson Bay Company lately arrived at Montreal with eight and a half tons of beaver, otter and martin raw furs.

During racing week at Saratoga, the glove shops are stripped of their contents by sporting ladies for the purpose of paying bets.

Indianapolis has exhausted a second panel of three hundred persons summoned to try a murderer.

A deadly feud exists in Fentress county, Tenn., between families named Hatfield and Beatty on one side, and Piles on the other. Five or six of them have been killed, and much bloodshed is expected.

Bayard Taylor, who is now sojourning at Gotha, the place of residence of his wife's parents, will return to America in a few weeks, to be present at the golden wedding of his parents, at Kennet Square, Chester county, Pa., on the 8th of October.

The number of thrashing machines in the county is set down at 225,000, and it is estimated that they can save five per cent. more of the grain than the flail. This would save to the country more than 19,000,000 bushels of grain, worth at least $30,000,000.

A Canadian paper states that Judge Counsel, who became famous by his connection with the St. Albans raiders, whom he set free, is to be rewarded for his devotion to Canadian and rebel interests by an appointment as Police Commissioner of the Dominion under a new act.

The National Republican Platform embraces the immortal Declaration of Independence, as drawn up by Thomas Jefferson the father of the democracy; the democratic platform repudiates it. Where is the party now? guess there isn't much democracy about it.

In Peoria, Ill., the other day, a gentleman fell asleep while enjoying the luxury of a sulphur bath. He remained there two hours and a half, when the keeper of the establishment, fearing something wrong, broke the door open and found him quietly snoozing, his nose just out of the water, his head apparently having been slowly slipping down into the tub.
